

Call for Applications

The Board is seeking applications for the 2023 grant round. Applications made in 2023 must meet the theme.

Please show how your application addresses the below theme:

'To grow future leaders in the Mental Health and Intellectual Disability Sectors.'

We're looking to fund projects or programmes that clearly demonstrate support in the following:

- Leadership development
- Vocational support or training
- Self-advocacy or personal development

The proposals must be:

- For people who use, or have used, mental health or intellectual disability services.
- Applied for by charitable organisations or individuals or groups without charitable status.
- Run, or administered by charitable organisations on behalf of individuals or groups without charitable status

Applications of up to a maximum of $10,000 will be considered. Late applications, as well as applications that do not directly address the theme, will not be considered.

The Board has agreed to allocate $100,000 in equal share for Mental Health and Intellectual Disability Sectors in 2023 for a total of four grants that support projects in leadership development.

Applications for the Leadership grants will need to demonstrate the following:

- For the Mental Health Leadership Grant, the focus needs to be on providing training programs that support people with lived experience to reach their leadership potential.
- For the Intellectual Disability Leadership Grant, the focus needs to be growing leadership of people with intellectual disability through their innovations and effort in challenging status quo and making changes.

Application Process

1. Applications must be submitted by a registered charitable organisation.
2. Individual or groups without charitable status must apply through a charitable organisation that has agreed to administer the funds on their behalf.
3. Applications open from 15th May 2023 at 9am to 17th July 2023 at 5pm. Applicants will be advised of the outcome by 31st August 2023.

Access the application form via the website: Frozen Funds

For more information please visit our website: Frozen Funds