Am I eligible for Relief of Poverty funding?

One of the ways the Trust helps is by financial assistance and relief of poverty for individuals disadvantaged. Check if you meet the Criteria below.

What are the criteria?

- ✓ Past residents of Centrepoint & their children.
- People disadvantaged by cults/communities.

The law uses a broad interpretation of the meaning of 'poverty'. Generally, this includes anyone who does not have access to the basic necessities of life that most people take for granted.

The applicant must show an identifiable need arising from their circumstances that requires support, and they must show they have difficulty in addressing that need themselves.

The intention is not just to provide financial assistance – it is also to provide support towards financial management and budgeting courses.

What minimum living expenses are funded?

- Essential living expenses: food & groceries, clothing, transport costs
- Mortgage/rent/board payments
- Utility bills (power, water, phone)
- Minimum living expenses in relation to any financial dependants (e.g., school uniform)
- Emergency dental expenses
- Budgeting support courses via councelling & Therapeutic Application Form

What funding is available?

The minimum application request is $200. Subject to the criteria specified, there is no limit in terms of the number of applications that are able to be submitted and/or the funding available per person. Each application is considered on its merits, and allocation of funding is at the discretion of the Trustee.

What minimum living expenses are not funded?

- ✓ Payment of credit card debt or debt collection agency fees in full
- ✓ Cash payouts
- ✓ Hire purchase repayments relating to non-essential living expenses
- √ Holidays and/or travel expenses

NZCGT does not provide funding for fines, infringement noticeses, car our house purchases/deposits, house repairs, orthodontic braces. NZCGT does not provide retrospective funding unless in an emergency situation where the application is submitted to the Trustee and discussed as soon as possible.
